Thank you for considering the White Room at Ripples Chowder Bay for your upcoming event! We would be delighted to assist you with your enquiry and look forward to hearing from you.

The White Room overlooks Clifton Gardens Beach and is adjacent to the alfresco deck area. Previously a part of the miners' depot of The Royal Australian Navy built in 1891, Ripples Chowder Bay has been transformed into a venue sympathetic of its proud history and is ideal for sophisticated events.

Our dedicated reservations team liaise with you during the entire planning process to ensure that from the time of booking, your event will run seamlessly.
